Dear Parent/Carer,

12th January, 2012

Do you know what your child means when he/she uses 'VCOPS' to produce a piece of writing? Are you unsure how to encourage your son/ daughter to extend sentences to make them complex? Would you like to become more confident at knowing how to use a semi-colon? Have you thought about how to help your child revise for English assessments?

If the answer to any of the above questions is 'yes', then please sign up for our English workshop to learn how to help your children prepare for the Standard Assessment Tests this spring. The English workshop will run on:
