

Don't Lose Your Head – Home Learning

Your task is to explain the differences between an aspect of Tudor life and present day life and present your information in an imaginative way, eg. scroll, journal, poster, model with explanation (NO paper mache).

You need to choose one of the following aspects for your work:

Food Monarchy Exploration Crime & Punishment

Medicine Clothing Houses Entertainment

You need to make sure you have included:

- What it was like in Tudor Times
- What it is like now and HOW IT HAS CHANGED
- An explanation of WHY the changes have happened

You can extend your work by:

- Explaining what triggered the changes that are different now
- Constructing a timeline tracking changes from then until now

Have you:

- ✓ Chosen the aspect of life
- ✓ Decided what information you need to complete your work and how to find it (go to the library, internet etc.)
- ✓ Decided how to present your home learning
- ✓ Written in your own words?
- ✓ Presented your work neatly?
- ✓ Completed your presentation?

Your work should take you about 5 hours and is due in on Tuesday 4th February 2011.

You should bring in evidence that you have started your Home Learning by Monday January 10th.
